Claim, v. means To demand as one's own; to assert a personal right to any property or any right; to demand the possession or enjoyment of something rightfully one's own and wrongfully withheld.

Claim of Conusance: means in practice, an intervention by a third person in a suit, claiming that he has a rightful jurisdiction of the cause which the plaintiff has commenced out of the claimant's court.

Capite. – means Lat. By the Head.

Blacks Law Dictionary 1st Edition:

CAPITIS DIMINUTIO. means In Roman law. A diminishing or abridgment of personality; This was a loss or curtailment of a man's status or aggregate of legal attributes and qualifications, following upon certain changes in his civil condition. It was of three kinds, enumerated as follows:

CAPITIS DIMINUTIO MAXIMA. (meaning a maximum loss of status through the use of capitalization, e.g. JOHN DOE or DOE JOHN) - means The highest or most comprehensive loss of status. This occurred when a man's condition was changed from one of freedom to one of bondage, when he became a slave. It swept away with it all rights of citizenship and all family rights.

CAPITIS DIMINUTIO MEDIA. (meaning a medium loss of status through the use of capitalization, e.g. John Doe) - means A lesser or medium loss of status. This occurred where a man lost his rights of citizenship, but without losing his liberty. It carried away also the family rights.

CAPITIS DIMINUTIO MINIMA. (meaning a minimum loss of status through the use of capitalization, e.g. John Doe/ john doe) means The lowest or least comprehensive degree of loss of status. This occurred where a man's family relations alone were changed. It happened upon the arrogation of a person who had been his own master, (sui juris), or upon the emancipation of one who had been under the patria potestas. It left the rights of liberty and citizenship unaltered.

DIMINUTIO. means In the civil law. Diminution; a taking away; loss or deprivation. Diminutio capitis, loss of status or condition. See Capitis Diminutio.

Note: As Black's law Dictionary 1st Edition explains, the full capitalization of the letters of one's given name, and, family name, results in a diminishing or complete loss of legal citizenship status, wherein one actually becomes a slave, or, an item of inventory;

Case Sensitive. means that two words that appear or sound identical, but are using different letter cases, are not equal. Anything that is case sensitive discriminates between upper and lowercase letters.

Color of Process. means for the appearance of validity and sufficiency surrounding a legal proceeding that is later found to be invalid.

Corporation Sole: means a corporation consisting of one person only, and his successors in some particular station, who are Incorporated by law in order to give them some legal capacities and advantages, particularly that of perpetuity, which in their natural persons they could not have had. A corporation sole consists of a single person, who is made a body corporate and politic, in order to give him some legal capacities and advantages, and especially that of perpetuity; as a bishop, dean, etc.; Blacks Law Dictionary 1st Edition

Injury. means Any wrong or damage done to another, either in his person, rights, reputation, or his property.
Anderson Law Dictionary

Legal Person. n. law, means a legal person is any person or 'thing' (less ambiguously, any legal entity) that can do the things a human person is usually able to do in law – such as enter into contracts, sue and be sued, own property, and so on. The reason for the term "legal person" is that some legal persons are not people: companies and corporations are "persons" legally speaking (they can legally do most of the things an ordinary person can do), but they are clearly not people in the ordinary sense.

Judicial. means whatever emanates from a judge as much, or proceeds from a court of justice. Pertaining to the administration of justice by a judge or court; also, authorized by law.

Juridical Person. means a juridical person is a non-human legal entity, in other words any organization that is not a single natural person but is authorized by law with duties and rights and is recognized as a legal person and as having a distinct identity. This includes any incorporated organizations including corporations, government agencies, and NGOs. Also known as artificial person, juridical entity, juridic person, juristic person, or legal person. The rights and responsibilities of a juridical person are distinct from those of the natural persons constituting it.

Person. means a man considered according to the rank he holds in society, with all the rights to which the place he holds entitles him, and the duties which it imposes.

1844 New Jersey Constitution ARTICLE I. BILL OF RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES.

SECTION XII. The military shall be in strict subordination to the civilpower.

A human being considered as capable of having rights and of being charged with duties; while a "thing" is the object over which rights may be exercised.

Persons are divided by law into natural and artificial. natural persons are such as God of nature formed us; artificial are such as are created and devised by human laws, for the purposes of society and government, which are called "corporations" or "body politic"

Tort. means Wrong; injury; the opposite of right. In modern practice, tort is constantly used as an English word to denote a wrong or wrongful act, for which an action will lie, as distinguished from a contract.

Tort-Feasor. means a wrong-doer; one who commits or is guilty of a tort.

Wrong. means an injury; a tort; a violation of right of law.

Wrong-doer. means One who commits an injury; a tort-feaser.

Wrongfully Intending. means in the language of pleading, this phrase is appropriate to be used in alleging the malicious motive of the defendant in committing the injury which forms the cause of action.

(see Exhibit F)

For on or about the 27th day of October, 2002, i, and a group of [my] friends were heading to College Ave. to get food after a party we had attended early, when we arrived at the fast food restaurant to pick up some food, we started getting weird looks from the guys in front of the fast food restaurant, i, wanted to get my food and leave as soon as possible, however, matters started to escalate, when the other men started calling i, and my friends the N-word; An altercation between my friend and the one man shouting the N-word started, when the man proceeded with throwing a kick at my friend and a full-out fight broke out.

i, was trying to break up the fight, eventually, the store owner called the police and what seemed like within five (5) minutes, the City of New Brunswick police arrived; i, told my friends to chill, so we could explain what had happened here, and i, would speak to the police on the matter, however, i, noticed my friends didn't want to stick around, they started to leave;

i, then began walking in the direction my friends went, and then one of the police yelled and said "you can't go that way." i, then mentioned that my friend's house was in that direction and that i, needed to get my car and go home; This certain police officer, whose name and badge number i, do not know, then began approaching me and forcefully say "don't go that way," i, then told him i, just wish to get my car and go home; This same certain police officer, began to use profane language as he approached me;

i, said to this certain police officer, "you don't need to speak to me that way," as i, was walking in the direction he told me to go; This certain police officer, was now following me, i, then asked "why was he following me?" and he told me to "shut the fuck up and keep walking." i, asked him "what his problem was?" as i, was walking away, then, with a blink of an eye, this certain police officer, aggressively grabs me from behind, the other police officers come running over, all i, felt was a kick to the groin, being hit with a night stick weapon and punched to the face;

For i, was pepper sprayed and slammed face first to the ground by this certain police officer, for i, briefly passed out and was then thrown in the back of the police vehicle;
As i, gained consciousness i, began screaming saying you assholes, i, didn't do anything wrong, i, then mentioned that my father was a police officer, and that they just assaulted a police officer's son;

i, was taken to the City of New Brunswick Police department, after i, was at the police station, i, was hand-cuffed at the desk waiting for processing;
i, again, mentioned my father being a police officer to several of the police officers at the station and that i, didn't do anything wrong;

Some time went by, and the City of New Brunswick Police department began processing me, shortly after my father called the station and spoke with the sergeant on duty, after the call, all i, remember hearing after i, was placed in the cell, was that "they fucked up, he really is the son of an officer."

i, was then approached by the sergeant and he stated i, would be released in the morning, hours later i, believe it was around 8:30 - 9:00 am, i, was given a breakfast sandwich by one of the officers, shortly after they came in, not to release me, but to bring me to the escort vehicle, which transported me to the county jail;
Once, i, arrived at the county jail, i, was trying to get information on what was going on;
Finally, one of the officers, mentioned that i, had 15 counts, with a 50,000 bail;
i, was speechless, after hours in the holding cell, i, was then given a jumpsuit to change into and was sent to the nursing office to receive shots;
i, was then sent back to the holding cell while waiting for a cell to open up, hours later by evening time, my mother arrived and posted bail for me;
